Realty Stock Review

September 9, 1983 (Priced Sept. 6)

VOL. XIV, No. 17

MARKET STRATEGY: A TIME TO SHIFT GEARS AS MARKET CONDITIONS BECOME TOUGHER

Making money in the second leg of this bull market isn't going to be as easy as it was starting a year ago. Already it's clear that new leadership is emerging in the general market, with energy stocks getting some good sponsorship.

The broad correction that began in late spring seems about over and we have been pleasantly surprised by the buying strength that's moved into the market since Labor Day - traditionally a time for second thoughts and decisions.

Will realty stocks get bypassed in Round Two of the bull market? We think the answer is a selective "No." The interest rate picture still dominates and a highly leveraged stock like Fanny May could be up or down sharply simply because of money-supply figures or pronouncements of a guru. Better we think to watch the longer picture, which seems to us to still be tilted toward stable to moderately lower rates simply because savers (investors) appear to be generating the funds needed to finance the huge Federal debt and business needs.

In recent issues we've been focusing on quality shares because we think they were largely overlooked in the speculative surge that marked end of the first major bull leg. We listed several candidates August 12 and it's still a good starter, even though some have risen.

As indicated last issue, we also see much more interest on Wall Street in emerging financial services companies simply because we're amid a revolution in the way home and apartment mortgages are financed. Hence we added Berg Enterprises and Countrywide Credit to RSR coverage last issue and included Lomas & Nettleton Financial and American Century Corp. in the Aug. 12 list. Others in this group which look attractive and which have been reviewed here recently include Landmark Land, U.S. Mutual Fincl. and Security Capital.

Leveraged buyout stocks are getting much comment recently and more of them are joining the list: Check reviews of Thackeray Corp. and Vyquest for a look at two. This category is much more aggressive since it's not clear yet whether there's too much leverage in the mix; hence we see them as smaller commitments in a larger portfolio. Homebuilders are likely to be soft for a time although special situations or new issues which aren't too well known by investors could be rewarding. This issue includes 10 new names, most ever, and they're listed on p. 16 for reference.

NEW HIGHS & LOWS: Only one stock hit a new high the past fortnight, lowest in this bull market. It was Canal Randolph, on news of an offer for all properties. New management makes CRH worth a look.
